FAG Bearings India Limited

Annual Report 2011

miles to go...

Turning 50 is an important milestone for an organisation. It is time to reminisce the past, review the present and reflect on the future.

As we look back at half a century of enriching experiences and continuous learning, we are reminded of pleasures and pains of growth and of collective resilience that ensured that the organisation not only survived many difficult and uncertain times but emerged stronger after every crisis.

Indeed, these 50 years have been a testimony of trust.

It is time to pause for a while and express our gratitude to the shareholders, customers, suppliers, business associates and to our employees for the immense trust and confidence they have showed in us at every stage of this eventful journey.

It is also time to reflect on the future - a future that promises to be both exciting and challenging.

Rapid economic growth of India opens up many exciting opportunities. At the same time success in a globalised environment demands that the organisation has cutting edge competence in terms of its product, process and people capabilities to be able to fulfill ever increasing customer expectations.

The next 50 years will be vastly different from the past 50. As we strive hard to propel the organisation into the next orbit, we realise that sustainable success in future demands a fresh transformational approach of an enduring great company.

While we celebrate the success, we remind ourselves of the long journey ahead. We know that we have to build organisational excellence, step by step. This will demand courageous leadership and committed teamwork - day after day, year after year.

With our vast experience and ever forthcoming support and guidance from Schaeffler in all fields, we at FAG India have confidence, courage and optimism to shape our destiny.

it is time to march on...

Maria-Elisabeth Schaeffler with FAG India's Board of Directors

In October 2011, the Board of Directors (BoD) of FAG India visited Schaeffler Headquarters in Germany. During this visit, BoD toured the plants and R&D facilities at Luk - Buehl, FAG - Schweinfurt and INA - Herzogenaurach.

The BoD was impressed by the immense engineering and innovation capabilities of Schaeffler and exchanged views on FAG India's roadmap for the future with Schaeffler top management.

Message from Maria-Elisabeth Schaeffler

Deputy Chairwoman of the Supervisory Board and Partner, Schaeffler AG

Maria-Elisabeth Schaeffler
Lic. oec. HSG Georg F. W. Schaeffler, JD/LLM

Dear Chairman Mr. Gandhi,

I am very happy to learn that FAG India is commemorating the 50th anniversary of its incorporation this year.

On this happy occasion, my son and I wish to convey our congratulations to the Board, shareholders, employees and business associates of FAG India. It is indeed due to their dedicated efforts and commitment, that the organization has reached this significant milestone in its history.

FAG with its long standing history has successfully earned the trust and confidence of customers in India. Furthermore, its continued financial success and stability over the past five decades has created a strong foundation for the company's future development.

In the 21st century, as the centre of gravity of the global economy shifts to Asia, India with its strong fundamentals is well placed for a robust and inclusive growth. I am very happy that with the investments currently under implementation at the Vadodara and Savli plants, FAG India has taken strong next steps to participate in India's growth story.

Rapid growth brings with it the challenge of sustainability. We at the Schaeffler Group are convinced that the Indian market will increasingly demand products and solutions that are not just affordable, but which are also efficient and ensure sustainability at the same time. The recently concluded Auto Expo 2012 in New Delhi bears witness to this trend where Indian customers showed keen interest in the Schaeffler Group's Efficient Future Mobility concept.

During the FAG India Board of Directors visit to the Schaeffler Group headquarter in Germany last year, you saw the immense innovation capabilities of the three Schaeffler brands INA, LuK and FAG. In order to ensure that these capabilities are fully leveraged in the Indian market, we will continue to guide and assist the Indian organization in its efforts towards further development of local R&D and engineering capabilities.

It is our firm belief that organizational development and employee development are inseparable. The Schaeffler Group will encourage and support the Indian organization in its endeavor to enhance the personal development and well being of all our employees in India. FAG India continues to be an important member of the Schaeffler Group.

On behalf of my son and myself, I would like to convey our sincere appreciation to all at FAG India and would like to assure them all of our continued support in their current and future endeavors.

With kind regards and all good wishes,

Maria-Elisabeth Schaeffler

The FAG brand started with an ingenious idea. In 1883, Friedrich Fischer 'Founder of FAG' - invented the ball grinding machine. This machine for the first time, allowed steel balls to be ground to perfectly round shape and in large volumes. Round steel balls represent creativity, perfection and simplicity at the same time - the values that we live in our organisation daily.

Tradition of Trust

1962 was the year when Precision Bearings India Limited (FAG's predecessor) or PBI was formed.

Doing business in those years was different. India's economy in terms of its size and its growth offered only a limited potential. And years of 'protected' economic environment did not stimulate excellence in business.

Despite these constraints, some companies maintained their focus and defined their own course. FAG was one of those companies.

FAG Germany became part of our Company's journey in 1969 when it acquired control of Norma Hoffman - the Company's initial collaborators. And with that began the tradition of Quality.

Active involvement of FAG Germany since initial years of Indian operations ensured that the emphasis on precision, process discipline and continuous improvement always formed an integral part of all our strategies and actions.

While endorsing 'Quality Focus' as its clear long-term direction, the Company, in its true Indian tradition, nurtured strong partnerships with all shareholders, customers, employees, vendors, channel partners and business associates.

Since five decades, we have consistently demonstrated our commitment to Quality and have constantly expanded our capabilities while emphasising long-term approach towards all our relationships. Our stakeholders have been co-travelers in the 50 years of the Company's journey - supporting, guiding and inspiring us in all our endeavours.

FAG set up Railway bearing production in 1975 and EOU to produce cylindrical roller bearings in 1997. These investments reflected the Group's trust in Indian operations.

“An environment of mutual trust has encouraged us to regularly expand our manufacturing and quality capabilities and thus set basis for interdependent relationship with Schaeffler.”

Raju Shah and Harish Rangwala
Founder Directors of Harsha Engineers

“Vagaries of Indian market in seventies and eighties often impacted financial success of FAG India.

The fact that despite all the difficulties the Company recovered quickly and maintained its financial independence, speaks of its inherent resilience and is a proof of trusted relationship that it enjoys with all its stakeholders.”

Kishen Chand Sharma
Retired as Head of Finance of FAG in 1996

Another defining moment for FAG came in 2001; when it became part of Schaeffler Group. Being part of Schaeffler with its tradition of values of a family-owned enterprise having immense innovative capabilities, has opened up new vistas and inspired us to take a flight into future with relentless optimism.

Today, while we are continuously striving towards improving economic success of our organisation, we know that we have an equally important responsibility of strengthening the foundation of trust that has been built over 50 years with all our stakeholders.

Main brands and divisions of the Schaeffler Group

The Schaeffler Group is a leading manufacturer of rolling bearings and linear products worldwide as well as a renowned supplier to the automotive industry. The Group's success is based on great innovative force, proximity to the customer on a global scale, highest possible quality in all processes and its ability to react quickly to customers' special requirements. With its three strong brands - LuK, INA and FAG - the Schaeffler Group is active in the automotive, industrial and aerospace sectors.

FAG was the first approved bearing supplier to Maruti 800 in 1984. The automotive scenario has changed dramatically since then. Today, rapid industrialisation and economic growth are driving demand for personal transportation. At the same time, the world faces challenge of conserving resources and protecting environment. At Auto Expo 2012, we presented trendsetting Schaeffler Advanced Drive Solutions which promise potential of 30% additional fuel savings.

Transformation Inspired by Customers

The evolution of FAG India has in many ways mirrored the evolution of Indian economy.

For India, the era before 1970s was characterised by slow growth, as the focus remained on providing people with basic products and services through government-run institutions and some core industries. During this time, FAG bearings and housings, mostly imported from Europe, ensured highly reliable operations in core industries like Steel, Cement and Power.

Then when India intensified indigenisation efforts, FAG supported this development as well. For example, in 1975 we set up Spherical and Cylindrical Roller Bearing production in India with Indian Railways as our first customer. Passenger coaches fitted with FAG spherical roller bearings and locomotives' drivetrains fitted with FAG cylindrical roller bearings have continued to move the nation, day after day.

In 1980s, Indian economy shifted gears as it slowly opened up its markets. More fundamental reforms followed in 1990s and with their renewal in 2000s, India firmly progressed towards a free market economy.

Opening of Indian economy raised the aspirations and expectations of Indian customers. The Maruti 800 which was envisioned as 'dream car for Indian middle class' was one such example. FAG was a part of this dream too as one of the first approved suppliers of bearings for Maruti 800.

Market economy also led to growing urbanisation and sharp growth in demand of personal mobility for middle class. This developed a large market for FAG ball bearings that supported millions of powerful and fuel efficient motorcycles running on Indian roads today.

In rural India, expectations of higher farm productivity led to high demand for agricultural tractors with vast capacity range and multiple functionalities. This provided another large volume opportunity for FAG products.

At MDA exhibition in Bangalore, INA and FAG introduced many innovative products including its benchmark X-life range

Together with INA and FAG products, Schaeffler is spurring on more efficiency and reliability in the wind power sector. Our know-how encompasses the entire powertrain system and ranges from simulation, planning, manufacturing, installation to support services. In 2011, Schaeffler Germany put the world's largest test stand (shown in the adjoining image) for wind and similar applications.

The Indian customer wanted equipment that were high quality, safer and that fulfilled the demands of increased performance while still remaining affordable. FAG was quick to identify this and responded by putting additional emphasis on building up Quality Systems across all areas of Company's operations. In 1993, we became the first Indian bearing company to obtain ISO 9001 certification and we followed up with ISO 14001 and TS 16949 certification in the year 2000 / 2001.

With the Group's immense innovative strength, we increased our focus on engineered solutions. One such example was the pioneering introduction of FAG 1st Generation Wheel Bearings for Indian passenger cars in 1999. This trendsetting innovation has ensured FAG's continuing leadership position in this segment over many years. And to take this forward, we developed advanced 3rd Generation Wheel Bearings for passenger cars and MUVs. We commissioned sophisticated production facility to produce these advanced products at Vadodara plant in 2011.

Increasing performance demands on equipment redefined design and quality standards for bearings. Bearings were designed to have smaller dimensions than before, while supporting higher speeds and loads thus constantly reducing parasitic losses.

FAG X-life products presented a perfect answer to these stringent customer needs. In 2011, we added new capacities to produce X-life Cylindrical Roller Bearings and Spherical Roller Bearings at our Vadodara plant. These premium quality products have gained wide approval of customers across Asia, Europe and America. To no one's surprise, FAG's export sales grew by 57% in 2011.

While optimising individual bearing design remains an ongoing challenge, at the next level, more and more customers are now looking for Schaeffler support to optimise performance of sub systems and systems.

With Schaeffler's vast know-how and long experience of our engineers, we support our customers in enhancing system performance.

For example, INA and FAG together provide comprehensive system solutions for wind applications. With our capabilities in system simulation and testing, we provide most effective solutions to our customers in India.

In automotive field, Schaeffler with its three brands demonstrated its immense innovation capabilities and a strong commitment to 'green future' by showcasing Schaeffler Advanced Drive Solutions at recently concluded Auto Expo 2012 in New Delhi. These advanced drive solutions featuring some of the trendsetting Schaeffler innovations like Tandem Ball Bearings offer potential to realise up to 30% improvement in vehicle fuel efficiency.

Thus, leveraging our innovation capabilities and supporting our customers to drive transformation towards a better tomorrow remains a moving target at FAG.

Recognition from customers constantly inspires us to move towards higher levels of excellence. In 2011, Bajaj Auto and John Deere presented Supplier Awards to FAG India.

“PRISM (Partnering to Realize Increased Share of Market) process provides an excellent basis of co-operation between FAG and Channel partners.”

Hands-on Service Approach forms the cornerstone of our Industrial Aftermarket Approach

Transformation Supported by Process

Process Orientation

Success of a sound strategy is in the processes that surround that strategy. Being part of German corporate, process orientation is natural to us. The challenge is to maintain a strong process excellence while still retaining flexibility to respond to dynamics of emerging Indian markets.

Innovation Process

At FAG, it all begins with processes to understand customer needs. Innovation pervades every process of our value chain and is seamlessly integrated to create maximum value for our customers. We keep track of mega trends and reflect these in our sector and product strategies.

We believe that God is in the details. Our engineers are meticulous in their understanding of customer's needs. Far beyond product knowledge, our engineers are trained to think in terms of systems and subsystem performance. We constantly map customer's applications and systematically capture inputs necessary for new product development.

Our innovation process is structured to ensure quality at every gateway. Schaeffler design tools like BEARINX® smartly captures all customer inputs and convert these into clear product specifications. A cross-functional team approach is followed at every stage of product development process to ensure that final outcome is robust in all respects.

We use simulation and FEM tools to check design principles before these are implemented in products.

We are constantly leveraging our global testing competence for validating components as well as systems. It is with this strong process orientation that we developed and added over 100 new bearing types for Indian and global markets in 2011.

Lean Manufacturing

Benefits of product innovation can only reach customers when manufacturing and operational processes are tuned for high level of excellence with productivity and quality as two solid deliverables.

We have regularly invested in modern manufacturing technology to ensure that precision of highest order is embedded in every product. In the year 2011, we invested in capacity expansion and quality improvement at Vadodara plant to meet growing customer expectations.

Our new factory at Savli which is currently under construction is designed to have high level of productivity.

Innovation process supported by Schaeffler software such as BEARINX® and capabilities to work in cross functional teams are key success factors while handling complex customer and investment projects.

“Concepts of single piece flow and lean manufacturing are built into design of Savli factory.”

Alexander Strauss | Project Manager

“Systematic technology transfer from global business units is our way of keeping pace with technology.”

Mukesh Amin and Bhimjibhai Kabaria | With nearly three decades of experience at FAG, these engineers have laid solid foundation of technology in our plants.

MOVE

MOVE is at the core of our corporate productivity strategy. With MOVE, empowered employees work together to avoid waste with error-free processes while working in synergy with our customers.

Last year, with MOVE, we saved 1,660 m² of area and accommodated three new production cells in the space thus saved. With low cost automations, we set a basis for higher productivity.

MOVE as productivity strategy is not restricted to manufacturing. 'Muda Safaris', the systematic process of identifying scope for waste reduction in office areas, have yielded encouraging results.

In 2011, 247 FAG employees graduated in basic principles from MOVE academy. With sight on global levels of productivity, we still have a long way to go.

Fit for Quality

Fit for Quality (FFQ) initiative entered a vigorous phase. In pursuit of zero defect target, we focused on implementation and horizontal deployment of FFQ axioms across all the functions and processes within the organisation. By following scientific processes like Workstation SWOT, Near Miss Analysis, Layered Audits, 'First Time Right' and by implementing Poka Yoke and Kaizens to make processes robust, we were successful in arresting customer complaint ppm in 2011.

Project Management

Managing a wide range of initiatives requires active and structured cross-functional cooperation. During the year 2011, we trained our executives in Project Management and used this structure effectively to maintain quality, cost and timeline of every project in line with project goals. War room concept too was successfully used to highlight and address urgent project topics.

TCO Approach

Our customer processes for aftermarket are designed in such a manner that customers get maximum life cycle benefits from our products and services while reducing Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) to minimum.

Our channel approach is focused on the needs of our end customers. Channel partners are strategically located close to customer factories and maintain customer specific part stock at all times.

Field Service Engineers (FSEs) are our active service ambassadors in the field. FSEs follow customer's processes and match learning with Schaeffler expertise to identify areas of potential improvement.

FSEs are 'Always There' and support customers in resolving problems related to mounting, dismounting, alignment and lubrication. With their expertise in Condition Monitoring techniques, they support customers in predictive maintenance.

With increasing focus of our customers towards realising high level of Operating Equipment Efficiency (OEE), we believe that our Hands-on Service Approach and TCO philosophy have potential of becoming a game changer in the aftermarket business.

Fit for Quality programme sets basis for Zero Defect Quality. MOVE philosophy emphasises on lean manufacturing and waste reduction.

At FAG, 'WE' represents a strong collective energy. A power of collective wisdom and collaborative endeavours. A transformational force that stimulates enterprise, accelerates our constant pursuit of excellence, and empowers our people to realise their full potential. A passion that naturally comes out when individual aims and organisational goals are perfectly aligned.

“Participation in Management Pool Programme provided us with international exposure, expanded our inter-cultural sensitivities and on the whole expanded our perspectives. We strive to become better leaders and better human beings at the same time now.”

Chinmay Mishra and Peeyush Jain | Participants of Talent Development Programme

Transformation through People

As we focus on preparing the organisation for changes that impact markets and processes, our commitment to the Group values, belief and talent motivation is steadfast. We lay equal emphasis on organisational values as well as human values.

For us, people are at the center of transformation, hence we involve them in every step. We consider transformation as an 'inside out' process and thus constantly identify opportunities of bringing employees together and involve them in setting the organisational direction and priorities. Our fundamental belief in immense power of human potential and teamwork is epitomised in our 'WE' approach.

The fact that attrition rate at FAG is significantly lower than the industry average is ample evidence of strong employee loyalty.

This year, we introduced many new programmes involving employees and their families.

Udaan

We initiated a 'bottom up' evolution process in order to articulate the Company's vision.

Over 255 employees keenly participated in the process of defining 'WE vision'. The event was characterised by unbridled enthusiasm and uncompromising commitment shown by all our employees towards the Company's progress. This event's overwhelming success has indeed reaffirmed our faith in 'WE'. With power of 'WE' in our wings, we are now ready to take a long flight towards a promising future.

Meet My Family

We consider FAG as one large family. Our 'Meet My Family' event witnessed a participation of 360 family members of FAG employees who were invited at FAG as guests for a day and were also conducted through the plant visit.

The Company also organised other family events like Talent Competition for school going children of the employees. In all, 200 children participated in drawing and essay writing categories of this competition. 'Nanhi Kali' was a programme dedicated to celebrate the birth of a girl child in the employee's family.

Active engagement with family members of our employees is part of our 'WE' philosophy

“We find Vadodara plant a good place to work. India is an interesting country and it is fun visiting places during holidays.”

Michaela Kasch, Dong Kyu Lee, Jeong Soo Park

FAG fosters a culture that nurtures and empowers young talent. It gives them the freedom to think and act beyond convention. This in turn gives them a sense of responsibility and with that a sense of satisfaction.

This year we upgraded our canteen facilities at Vadodara plant and redesigned it based on the values of 'Anna Devo Bhava' and 'Karma Devo Bhava'. This concept of 'common community eating' reinforces the spirit of 'WE'.

Engaging our Employees

We value communication with our employees and thus rely on many ways to share our values and ideas.

Town Hall Meetings continue to provide an excellent platform to share organisational priorities with our executives. This year, we also started Monthly Birthday Meetings with our employees as a forum where we listen to them.

Investing in our People

At FAG, we constantly strive to create an environment where positive culture simultaneously powers development of the organisation and our employees.

Our HR approach is designed to attract the right people, engage them and develop them as a part of continuous process.

This year, our leadership talent development programme got further momentum. Executives and managers are currently undergoing development under Development Circles, Management Pool and Accelerated Learning programme which will prepare them to become role models and change ambassadors.

We regularly send our engineers and master craftsmen for extended on-the-job training at our lead factories in Europe. Besides learning new skills, this provides our employees with excellent international exposure to work and learn.

Encouraging Diversity

In 2011, the number of expats in Vadodara increased remarkably.

At FAG, we emphasise diversity and inclusion. Slowly, we are trying to build a workplace where people of diverse gender, background and skills are welcome.

Successful transformations involve a rigorous journey including reflection, training and a lot of hard work from all the employees. We make genuine effort to provide a positive environment based on shared values, continuous learning and family feeling.

Connecting with Communities

Caring for people and connecting with communities are values that we are committed to.

Our involvement with Lions Blind Girls School in Vadodara is one such example. We helped the school in acquiring hardware and software 'JAWS' that empowers blind girl students to explore the world of computers.

Another example is an endeavour of a group of our employees who found a novel way of spending their evening. They visited an Old Age Home in Vadodara wherein they interacted with the elderly, ate together and sang together. This not only brought smiles on their faces but also established a healthy relationship with the elderly generation.

Forums like Town Hall Meeting and Birthday Meetings provide excellent platforms for two way communication.

“Though it is 11 years since I retired, I still consider myself a part of FAG and feel very happy to see that the organisation is respecting its core values and is building on its foundation.”

Narendra K. Bhatt | Retired as Stores Manager from FAG and is now actively associated with social organisations

While never losing focus on economic success, we, in a very small way, strive to contribute to communities. Sharing time and bringing smiles on the faces of old age people was one of the ways, our employees showed 'we care'.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Annexure to the Directors' Report

A Industry Structure and Developments

Rolling Bearings are required wherever there is motion. Bearings thus play critical role in industrial progress.

Indian Bearing market size is estimated at Rs. 85 billion. Imports (inclusive of duties) account for over 45% of this demand.

Production of the organised bearing industry, as represented under BRBMA (Ball and Roller Bearing Manufacturers' Association), was placed at Rs. 43 billion.

Indigenous bearing manufacturers are regularly expanding their production capacity and product range to meet growing bearing demand from diverse sectors in India.

Though Rolling Bearing is a precision engineering industry requiring high investments, India has a number of manufacturers in the unorganised sector, who mainly cater to requirements in replacement sector besides supplying to certain niche demands. At the same time, small scale companies are often the origin of counterfeit products and thus pose a severe threat - both to bearing companies and to consuming industries.

The automotive industry is the single largest consumer of bearing products. According to SIAM, in the calendar year 2011, sales of the overall Indian automobile sector increased by 14.3%, a much lower rate compared to 31% in 2010. Particularly affected were passenger car sales that have registered de-growth since July 2011 compared with the previous year.

Rising interest rates and fluctuating fuel prices coupled with the negative global economic sentiments have been the chief reasons for this slowdown. 2011 saw the highest retail petrol prices, a 34% increase since deregulation in 2010. Interest rates have been revised 13 times since March 2010.

The sentiments in two-wheeler and commercial vehicles were more enthusiastic.

Production of Automotive Industry April - December 2011

Category	Number of Vehicles in thousands		% Change
	Year 2011	Year 2010
Two - Three Wheelers	12,200	10,425	17%
Passenger Cars & MUVs	2,200	2,145	2.6%
Light Commercial Vehicles	391	293	34%
Medium and Heavy Vehicles	271	242	12%

Source: SIAM

Overall Index of Industrial Production in India (IIP) remained subdued during 2011. Industrial production grew only by 3.6% during the period April - December 2011 as compared to 8.3% growth during the same period last year.

Growth April - December 2011 over April - December 2010

Mining -2.7% | Manufacturing 3.9% | Electricity 9.4%

Production of capital goods - an indicator of investment climate in the country declined by 2.9% during the period April - December 2011 compared to the same period in previous year.

Production of the organised bearing industry, as represented under BRBMA (Ball and Roller Bearing Manufacturers' Association), was placed at Rs. 43 billion

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Production of the eight core industries, which include coal, cement, natural gas, petroleum refinery and fertilisers, recorded growth rate of 4.4 per cent in April - December 2011 as compared to 5.7 per cent growth during April - December 2010 suggesting deceleration in infrastructure investment.

B Opportunities

It is believed that despite subdued sentiments regarding economic growth that are prevailing currently, long term outlook on Indian economy remains very positive.

Growing educated young population in India, expansion of middle class and trickle down effects of overall prosperity in rural areas, augurs well for economic development of India. It is expected that Indian economy will recover to grow at ~8% per year in the mid and the long term.

Rapid industrialisation and economic growth will drive an ever increasing demand for personal transportation. This will push demand of passenger cars. Growing prosperity in rural areas will positively influence demand of motorcycles as well as agricultural tractors in India.

A large number of public and private investment programs in core sectors like steel, cement, power etc. manifests Indian government's priority to infrastructure development. Renewable energy too shows a lot of potential in the medium and long term.

Overall prospects for industrial development thus remain very positive in India and we expect strong demand of bearing products to continue in the coming future.

In the short term however, demand growth may see some cyclic impact due to factors such as uncertain political scenario, global developments, increasing commodity prices etc.

C Threats

Over the last few years, there have been regular increases in the prices of bearing steel which constitute a major portion of bearing costs. Continued increase in steel prices will put pressure on costs and margin of Indian bearing manufacturers.

Dumping of cheap bearings by Chinese manufacturers poses a serious threat to Indian bearing manufacturers. These products are often sold at prices lower than cost of raw material applicable to Indian bearing manufacturers. As the developed markets in US and Europe may see low growth in the coming years, bearing manufacturers in China and South-East Asian countries may use Indian market as dumping ground.

Cheap imports from these countries have shown an increasing trend in recent years.

Counterfeit bearing products probably account for 20% to 30% bearings sold in replacement market. These fake products of inferior quality represent a threat not only to organised bearing sector but also to gullible customers who buy such products. Your Company is taking active measures to protect FAG brand and has undertaken several raids on counterfeit dealers-in co-operation with competent agencies. The problem, though, remains widespread.

We counter the threat from cheap products by focusing even more on our technology. We are convinced that as the Indian industry aligns itself to strict emission norms and higher carbon accountability, the advanced technological products of the Schaeffler Group which reduce friction and enhance efficiency will attract robust demand. With our comprehensive knowhow of customer applications, we are in position to offer advanced solutions to our customers in Automotive and Industrial business. Towards its efforts to improve productivity and plant utilisation, Indian industries will increasingly prefer parts which have better quality and high reliability. Our Services Division supports MRO customers by providing not only quality products but also all the peripheral services and knowledge that help customers minimise plant breakdown, reduce cost and improve quality.

D Segment-wise Performance

The business of the Company falls under a primary single segment, i.e., 'Ball / Roller Bearings and related components' for the purpose of Accounting Standard (AS-17).

E Outlook

We blend optimism with caution as we look ahead to the short term future. Easing of inflation and liquidity will set better climate for investment and consumption.

Demand for your Company's products in domestic market will thus grow in the coming year. At the same time there are concerns that rising fiscal deficit, rising commodity prices, fluctuating exchange rate in foreign currencies such as USD and Euro, may slow down the growth prospects.

In the export markets, we see steady growth. Your Company will continue to pursue its growth process through continued business development, R&D, productivity and technology innovation measures.

F Risks and Concerns

Like any other business, your Company's business too has its inherent risks.

Despite the overall positive industrial outlook, there are concerns that rising commodity prices and fluctuating exchange rate between USD and INR will exert pressure on costs. At the same time increasing international competition will put pressure on the prices and margins.

Your Company has a comprehensive Risk Management System towards identification and evaluation of all potential business risks. Management has developed Risk Management Plan and reviews its implementation regularly.

Our focus on high quality of products, processes and people help us constantly upgrade our competitiveness in the market. Initiatives such as MOVE contribute towards continual improvement in all areas of our operations and help us respond to market dynamics effectively.

Your Company will continue to work on increasing localisation of production, high productivity and innovation. We will also lay strong emphasis on the training and development of people to maintain the organisation's competitive advantage.

Our Services Division supports MRO customers by providing not only quality products but also all the peripheral services and knowledge that help customers minimise plant breakdown, reduce cost and improve quality

xxi) Other useful information to shareholders

ECS / NECS Facility

The Company uses "Electronic Clearing Services" (ECS) facility for remitting dividend to its shareholders wherever available.

In terms of notification issued by the Reserve Bank of India, with effect from 1st October, 2009, remittance of dividend through ECS is replaced by "National Electronic Clearing Services" (NECS). Banks have been instructed to move to the NECS platform. The advantages of NECS over ECS include faster credit of remittance to the beneficiary's account, coverage of more bank branches and ease of operations.

NECS essentially operates on the new and unique bank account number, allotted by banks post implementation of Core Banking Solutions (CBS) for centralised processing of inward instructions and efficiency in handling bulk transactions.

To enable remittance of dividend through NECS, Members are requested to provide their new account number allotted to them by their respective banks after implementation of CBS. The account number must be provided to the Company in respect of shares held in physical form and to the Depository Participants in respect of shares held in electronic form.

Shareholders holding shares in physical form are requested to provide details of their bank account for availing NECS facility in the form attached to the Notice of the Annual General Meeting. However, if the shares are held in dematerialised form, the NECS mandate has to be communicated to the Depository.

xxii) PAN requirement for Share Transfer / Dematerialisation transactions

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) vide circular ref. no. MRD/DoP/Cir-05/2007 dated April 27, 2007 made PAN (Permanent Account Number) mandatory for all securities market transactions. Thereafter, vide Circular no. MRD/DoP/Cir-05/2009 dated May 20, 2009, SEBI has clarified that for securities market transactions and off-market / private transactions involving transfer of shares in physical form of listed companies, it shall be mandatory for the transferee(s) to furnish copy of PAN Card to the Company / RTAs for registration of such transfer of shares.

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of FAG Bearings India Limited ('the Company') as at December 31, 2011 and the related Profit and Loss Account and the Cash Flow Statement for the year ended on that date, annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As required by the Companies (Auditors' Report) Order, 2003 ('the Order') issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of Section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956 ('the Act'), we enclose in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.

Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to above, we report that:

- A we have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief, were necessary for the purposes of our audit;

With reference to the Annexure referred to in our report of the even date, we report that:

- I (a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.
(b) The Company has a programme of physical verification of its fixed assets by which all fixed assets are verified once in every two years. In our opinion, this periodicity of physical verification is reasonable having regard to the size of the Company and the nature of its assets. Accordingly, all assets were physically verified by the management in the previous year and no material discrepancies were noticed on such verification.
(c) Fixed assets disposed off during the year were not substantial, and therefore, do not affect the going concern assumption.
- II (a) The inventory, except goods-in-transit and stocks lying with third parties, has been physically verified by the management during the year. In our opinion, the frequency of such verification is reasonable. For stocks lying with third parties at the year end, written confirmations have been obtained.
(b) The procedures for the physical verification of inventories followed by the management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
(c) The Company is maintaining proper records of inventory. The discrepancies noticed on verification between the physical stocks and the book records were not material.
- III According to the information and explanations given to us, we are of the opinion that there are no Companies, firms or other parties covered in the register required under Section 301 of the Act. Accordingly, paragraph 4(iii) of the Order is not applicable.
- IV In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, and having regard to the explanation that purchases of certain items of inventories and fixed assets are for the Company's specialised requirements and similarly certain goods sold and services rendered are for the specialised requirements of the buyers and suitable alternative sources are not available to obtain comparable quotations, there is an adequate internal control system commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business with regard to purchase of inventories and fixed assets and with regard to the sale of goods and services. We have not observed any major weakness in the internal control system during the course of the audit.
- V In our opinion, and according to the information and explanations given to us, there are no contracts and arrangements the particulars of which need to be entered into the register maintained under Section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956.
- VI In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company has complied with the provisions of Section 58A, Section 58AA or other relevant provisions of the Act, and the rules framed thereunder with regard to deposits accepted from the public. Accordingly, there have been no proceedings before the Company Law Board or National Company Law Tribunal (as applicable) or Reserve Bank of India or any Court or any other Tribunal in this matter and no order has been passed by any of the aforesaid authorities.
- VII In our opinion, the Company has an internal audit system commensurate with the size and the nature of its business.
- VIII We have broadly reviewed the books of account maintained by the Company pursuant to the rules prescribed by the Central Government for maintenance of cost records under Section 209(1)(d) of the Act in respect of bearings and are of the opinion that prima facie, the prescribed accounts and records have been made and maintained. However, we have not made a detailed examination of the records.
- IX a) According to the information and explanations given to us and on the basis of our examination of the records of the Company, amounts deducted/accrued in the books of account in respect of undisputed statutory dues including Provident Fund, Employees' State Insurance, Income tax, Sales tax, Wealth tax, Service tax, Customs duty, Excise duty, Value added tax, Investor Education and Protection Fund and other material statutory dues have been regularly deposited during the year by the Company with the appropriate authorities.

15 STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared to comply in all material respects with the Notified Accounting Standards by Companies Accounting Standards Rules, 2006 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis. The accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and are consistent with those used in the previous year.

B Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, expenses and disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and during the reporting period. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

C Fixed assets and depreciation

(i) Fixed assets are stated at cost of acquisition or construction (including directly attributable expenses thereto) or at revalued amounts, net of impairment loss if any, less depreciation / amortisation. Cost include financing costs of borrowed funds attributable to acquisition or construction of qualifying fixed assets, up to the date the assets are put to use. Assessment of indication of impairment of an asset is made at the year end and impairment loss, if any, recognised.

(ii) Depreciation / Amortisation:

a) Tangible assets:

- i) Leasehold land is depreciated over the period of the lease except where the lease is convertible to freehold land under lease agreements at future dates.
- ii) Depreciation on Buildings and Roads acquired prior to April 2, 1987 is provided on straight line method at the rates - 3.39%, 2.31% (as applicable) which are different from the principal rates prescribed in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.
- iii) Assets individually costing Rs. 5,000 or less are depreciated fully in the year when the assets are put to use.
- iv) In respect of the other assets, depreciation is provided on straight line method at the rates and in the manner laid down in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

b) Intangible assets:

These are amortised equally over a period of three years.

D Impairment

The carrying amounts of assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date if there is any indication of impairment based on internal/external factors. An impairment loss is recognised wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the asset's net selling price and value in use. In assessing value in use, the Company measures its 'value in use' on the basis of discounted cash flows of next five year's projections estimated based on current prices.

After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

E Investments

Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments. Current investments are valued at the lower of cost and fair value.

Changes in the carrying amount of current investments are recognised in the Profit and Loss Account. Long-term investments are valued at cost, less any provision for diminution, other than temporary, in the value of such investments; decline, if any, is charged to the Profit and Loss Account. Cost comprises cost of acquisition and related expenses such as brokerage and stamp duties.

F Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is ascertained on a moving weighted average basis except for goods in transit which is ascertained on a specific identification basis. Work-in-progress and manufactured finished goods are valued on full absorption cost basis and include material, labour and factory overheads.

G Foreign currency transactions

Initial Recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency prevailing at the date of transaction.

Conversion

Foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate.

Exchange Differences

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting Company's monetary items at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the year, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognised as income or as expense in the year in which they arise.

Derivatives

The Company uses forward exchange contracts to mitigate its exposure to movements in foreign exchange rates in respect of highly probable transactions or firm commitments. No premium or discount is recorded separately on such forward exchange contracts. The gains / losses arising on settlement / cancellation of the contracts are recognised in the Profit and Loss Account of the period of such settlement / cancellation. Provision for losses in respect of all outstanding derivative contracts are made at the Balance Sheet date by marking them to market keeping in view the principle of prudence as enunciated in Accounting Standard 1 (AS-1).

H Revenue recognition

Deferred income tax reflect the impact of current year timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years.

Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. In situations where the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realised against future taxable profits.

At each Balance Sheet date the Company reassesses unrecognised deferred tax assets. It recognises unrecognised deferred tax assets to the extent that it has become reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised.

M Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders for the period by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders for the year by the weighted average number of equity and equivalent diluted equity shares outstanding during the year, except where the results would be anti dilutive.
