

Dirk SpindlerSchaeffler AG Supervisory Board Member

After completing secondary school, Dirk Spindler studied mechanical engineering from 1983 to 1990 at Kaiserslautern Technical University before starting his professional career as a test engineer (NVH) at INA.

Between 1990 and 2016, Dirk Spindler worked in various functions throughout the Schaeffler Group. In his last position he has served as a member of the Executive Committee Industrial and Senior Vice President R&D and Application Engineering Industrial of Schaeffler Technologies AG & Co. KG.

Since 2016, he is heading the department “R&D Processes, Methods and Tools” of Schaeffler AG and is responsible for the preparation of the R&D functions for the digitalization in product development.

In addition to his position on the Supervisory Board at Schaeffler AG, Dirk Spindler is also the Chairman of the Executive Staff Representation Committee of Schaeffler Technologies AG & Co. KG and a member of the Executive Board for the FAG Foundation.