

Prof. Dr.-Ing. habil. Prof. E.h. mult. Dr. h.c. mult. Hans-Joerg Bullinger*Schaeffler AG Supervisory Board Member

After finishing secondary school, Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger studied, completed his doctorate, and did post-doctoral studies at the University of Stuttgart in the subject of mechanical engineering, after which he took on early managerial positions in applied research and teaching.

Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger founded and led Fraunhofer IAO (Institute for Work Management and Organization) and the Institute for Work Science and Technology Management (IAT) at the University of Stuttgart. From 2002 to 2012, he was President of the Fraunhofer Society in Munich.

From 2006 to 2012, he was Chairman of the Industry-Science Research Alliance of the Federal Ministry of Education and Research along with Dr. Arend Oetker.

Since 2013, Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger has been senator of the Fraunhofer Society.

In addition to his position on the Schaeffler AG Supervisory Board, Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger is a member of the University Council of the Distance Learning University of Hagen, a fellow of the Royal Academy of Engineering (UK), and, from 2012 to 2015, was involved with various high-level groups (HLG) in the European Commission.

Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger has received numerous awards and several honorary doctorates for his committed work, plus two honorary professorships. In 2009, he was elected as “Manager of the Year” by Manager magazine, and he was inducted into the “Hall of Fame of German Research” in 2013. In 2014, Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger was awarded the “Schoeller Prize” as an honorary fellow of the Dr. Theo and Friedel Schoeller Research Center for Economics and Society.

Prof. Dr. Hans-Joerg Bullinger is the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of ARRI AG, Munich, and of TÜV SÜD AG, Munich, Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board of WILO SE, Dortmund, and a member of the Supervisory Board of Bauernfeind AG, Zeulenrode-Triebes.